ABOUT THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Map and more info at detroitshoreway.org

Detroit Shoreway is located two miles west of downtown Cleveland, on a bluff overlooking Lake Erie.

The Gordon Square Arts District is the heart of the neighborhood along Detroit Ave (served by RTA's 26 bus). The district is home to six theatres – including our Capitol Theatre cinema – the LGBT Center, 78th Street Studios, and creative shops and restaurants.

Edgewater Park to the north hosts 147 acres of greenspace and beaches.

Michael J. Zone Recreation Center to the south provides sports, swimming, and year-round programming. Many smaller greenspaces and community gardens are located in between.

The Cleveland EcoVillage is a diverse community focused on sustainability and centered around RTA's West 65th-Lorain Red Line station (which connects us to the airport, Downtown, and the east side of Cleveland).

The Lorain Avenue Antiques District is a two-mile commercial corridor through Detroit Shoreway and Ohio City (served by RTA's 22 bus) with many vintage shops and niche restaurants.
